Labor Day Holiday – Thank Your neighbor

Since Labor Day is meant to celebrate the common American worker, I wanted to know its origin. I learned that the idea of a Labor Day was sparked in the late 19th century as a means to honor our labor unions and workers across the country. For context: Prior to the inception of the holiday in the late 1800's, labor unions were advocating for improvements in their working conditions. Most workers in America experienced physically or mentally taxing jobs all seven days of the week, with no real limit to the hours per day. Through resilience and stubbornness, the labor unions saw some amazing wins, such as the implementation of the 40-hour work week and company benefits such as paid time off, vacation time, and sick leave!

Labor Day honors the common American workers who helped change the way our country views its workforce, allowing for economic freedom and liberty. As we celebrate this weekend, maybe with a family cookout, and helping America to exceed last years 7 billion hot dogs consumed from Memorial Day through Labor Day, or maybe a pool party as a way to wrap up summer as we head back to school, take a moment to thank your neighbor.

Last week I had the opportunity to meet with a Hispanic friend and mentor. My priority for our conversation was, "how can I show love and respect for those hard working laborers in my neighborhood, putting roofs on houses, working on local farms and in our factories?" My friend and mentor's wisdom was to love as Jesus loved. Don't be silent. Continue to listen, to share, to talk, and to be respectful and loving. The Res love language would be, continue to Rise toward loving all Gods people. That could be a simple smile or thank you, neighbor.

Happy Labor Day,
Deacon Kevin DeCleene

Raising Vocations Collection

During the past weeks, you should have received a letter from Bishop Ricken requesting your help in supporting our Raising Vocations Collection. This collection will support ministries that help young people discover Christ and accompany them on their vocation journey. Please consider making a gift. Help us grow this collection in whatever way you are able. If you did not receive the mailing, please take a blank pledge card and envelope with you.

You will also be receiving with your mailing a Called by Name card.
Please use the card to write down someone you believe would make an excellent priest or religious and return it in the yellow envelope with your gift. Thank you in advance for responding in faith to our Raising Vocations Collection. Together, let's help them say "yes" to God's call!
