

Resurrection Catholic Parish

Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time
February 14 & 15, 2026

*Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.*

cf. Matthew 11:25

The Best is Yet to Come!

In Bishop Morneau's book Ashes to Easter, he simply invites us to love, as he writes, "Jesus gives his disciples a simple, clear example of what discipleship is all about: service. Washing one another's feet, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked – here is the core of the Eucharist, our great miracle of love...God's table is large, as large as creation. All are invited. All are to have access to the necessity of food and the miracle of love. Both are essential to the fullness of life. Without food, the body languishes and dies; without love, our souls wither and are filled with despair. The leftovers in our lives? What are they and who will get them? So many people can live off our leavings if we would only share. This is hardly sufficient. Disciples of Christ give abundantly in imitation of the Master who gave his very self."

In St. Paul's letter to the Corinthians, he writes that "what eye has not seen, and ear has not heard, ... what God has ready for those who love him." 1Cor 2:9. Bishop Mourneau gives us direction on how to put our love language into action. St. Paul gives us hope that no matter where we are on life's journey, we have hope in that "The best is yet to come!"
