

Weekend of August 6 and August 7, 2022

Nineteenth Sunday of the Year

Introduction

Have you ever trusted someone to do something and then been disappointed to find that it has not been done? Jesus trusted his disciples to carry on his work when he had gone.

Please read the gospel with your family

Gospel: Luke 12: 41-48

A reading from the Gospel of St. Luke.

One day Jesus told this story: "A man gave orders to his two servants and trusted them to be carried out while he was away. One servant did what his master had told him, even though he did not know when his master would return. The other servant betrayed his master's trust and did not carry out his wishes. When the master returned unexpectedly, the good and trustworthy servant was generously rewarded, but the other servant was punished and sent away."

Those who know what their master expects from them, but choose to disregard him, will receive the appropriate punishment. If someone has been trusted with a great deal, then a great deal will be expected from that person.

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!

Questions for Discussion

Why did Jesus suggest that his disciples should give away all that they had?

For what event should we keep ourselves prepared?

What does Jesus expect from his followers?
